NDA to work together for Hiriyur bypoll victory: K'taka BJP

Bengaluru, Nov 3 : Karnataka BJP President and MLA B.Y. Vijayendra on Tuesday said the BJP and JD(S) would work together in the upcoming Hiriyur Assembly by-election and formulate a strategy to ensure an NDA victory. Speaking to reporters at the BJP state headquarters, Jagannath Bhavan, Vijayendra said the BJP would focus on devising a winning strategy rather than merely discussing how to defeat the Congress. "We will formulate a strategy on how we should win rather than concentrating only on how to defeat the Congress party," he said.

Vijayendra said the Hiriyur bypoll could be announced at any time and that the issue had been discussed in detail at the BJP core committee meeting held on Monday. "We need to sit with some senior BJP leaders and also discuss the matter with Kumaraswamy. We will hold discussions and decide how to field a consensus candidate," he said. Taking a dig at the Congress government, Vijayendra said Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar had already visited Hiriyur within two to three months of assuming office. He said the recent Legislative Council election results reflected the growing dissatisfaction among people against the Congress government. "Despite all the show of strength by the ruling Congress government and the Chief Minister, the people of Karnataka have lost confidence in this government," he claimed. Vijayendra said BJP National General Secretary and Karnataka in-charge Harish Dwivedi participated in the party's state office-bearers' meeting and provided guidance on strengthening the organisation in Karnataka. He said the results of the recent Legislative Council elections indicated the level of public anger against the Congress government. "There is public anger against the state government and the ruling party. We have been advised to strengthen the organisation by carrying out positive struggles and prepare for the upcoming GBA elections, Zilla Panchayat and Gram Panchayat elections," he said. Vijayendra said the BJP would also have to work keeping the next Assembly elections in mind, adding that the party faced several challenges. "The Assembly elections are not very far away. We have many challenges before us, and we have been given guidance on how to overcome those challenges and move forward successfully," he said. He added that Dwivedi had also held informal discussions with members of the BJP state core committee and assured them that he would devote more time to Karnataka.

"Harish Dwivedi has vast experience. His decision to spend more time in Karnataka will strengthen the organisation and give us greater strength," Vijayendra said.

BJP repeatedly changed political targets over years, now using Bangladesh issue for electoral gains: Karnataka Cong

Bengaluru, Nov 3 : Commenting on whether granting permanent residence would benefit illegal immigrants, Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) President B.K. Hariprasad alleged that the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) had repeatedly changed its political targets over the years and was now using the Bangladesh issue for electoral gains. Speaking to media on Tuesday, Hariprasad questioned how alleged illegal immigrants could have reached Karnataka, which does not share an international border with Bangladesh, without the Centre's failure to prevent their entry.

Commenting on Union Minister of State Shobha Karandlaje's letter to the Centre opposing permanent residence certificates for alleged illegal immigrants, the KPCC President said she should instead write to the President Droupadi Murmu seeking the dismissal of Union Home Minister Amit Shah.

Referring to the NRC and CAA exercise in Assam, Hariprasad claimed that millions of people, including a large number of Hindus, had faced exclusion, and accused the BJP of attempting to remove genuine Indian voters from the electoral rolls for political purposes.

On the Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA) elections, the KPCC President said the Congress was fully prepared and had already constituted its manifesto committee. However, he alleged that the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of electoral rolls was being delayed due to a shortage of government officials, with Home Guards being deployed for the exercise.

He said there was no clarity on which electoral roll would be used for the elections and confirmed that the matter had been taken to court.

He clarified that the legal petition was not filed by the state government.

On Congress leader Vinay Kulkarni's plea seeking restoration of his Dharwad Assembly membership.

Jaipur, Nov 3 : BJP National General Secretary (Organisation) B.L. Santosh on Tuesday called upon party workers to work towards establishing a "triple-engine" government in Rajasthan, emphasising that coordination between the Centre, state and local governments would accelerate development in cities. Addressing organisational meetings at the state BJP headquarters in Jaipur ahead of the local body elections, Santosh urged party workers to effectively communicate the achievements of the BJP governments to the public and work with full dedication to secure victory in the civic polls. He said stronger coordination between all three levels of government would help Rajasthan's cities become partners in faster and more effective development.

Santosh held a series of organisational meetings at the state BJP office in Jaipur on Friday to review preparations for the upcoming local body elections in Rajasthan. During the meetings, he urged party workers to work with dedication, highlight the achievements of the BJP government and counter opposition propaganda effectively.

Santosh highlighted the BJP's organisational style, saying the party works through advance planning, comprehensive preparation and collective participation. He referred to the principle of "a worker for every task and a task for every worker", stressing that every party worker has an important role to play in the electoral process. He said the BJP's campaign should focus on the achievements of the "double-engine" governments, while also highlighting the failures and internal differences within opposition parties. Santosh called upon party workers to understand their responsibilities and perform their assigned duties effectively so that BJP-led local bodies could contribute to the development of Rajasthan's cities. He urged workers to work towards establishing a "triple-engine" government.

New water policy for Kerala on the anvil

Thiruvananthapuram, Nov 3 : Kerala will introduce a comprehensive water policy in early 2027 as part of a major reform of the drinking water and irrigation sectors, Water Resources Minister Mons Joseph announced on Tuesday.

The policy, which will bring together various departments under the Water Resources Department, has the aim of making the Water Authority and other agencies more efficient and people-friendly.

A Kerala Water Conclave will be held in Thiruvananthapuram in the first week of December to discuss the policy in the presence of experts. The government will launch a pilot project in Thiruvananthapuram to check water loss during distribution.

Nearly half the water pumped from Aruvikkara is lost before reaching consumers, and new technology will be used to identify and prevent such losses. If successful, it will be introduced across the state. The government is also considering plants to convert seawater into drinking water in coastal areas.

A committee has been formed to study ways to tackle the severe growth of water weeds in Kuttanad and Upper Kuttanad. It will examine foreign technologies to process the weeds and turn them into useful products.

From January, committees headed by MLAs will be formed in all 140 Assembly constituencies to address local drinking water and irrigation problems. Local body representatives and officials of the Water Authority, PWD and Local Self-Government Department will be members.

The committees will meet every month.

District-level reviews will be held every three months under the district Collectors.

The minister will review their work every six months.

The government has also decided to change the system of repairing roads dug up for laying water pipes. The PWD will restore state roads, while local bodies will repair village and panchayat roads.

Telangana in a terrible condition, industries facing water crisis : BRS MLC Sravan

Hyderabad, Nov 3 :BRS MLC Dasoju Sravan on Tuesday alleged that Telangana was facing a grim situation, with water-dependent industries shutting down and the State government failing to effectively handle natural disasters.

Addressing a media conference here at Telangana Bhavan, Sravan claimed that the Andhra Pradesh government had acted with foresight in managing drought conditions and alleged that it had secured 750 TMC of Godavari water and 50 TMC of Krishna water.

He criticised Union Home Minister Amit Shah and Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy for engaging in political attacks against each other instead of addressing Telangana's pressing issues. Mocking Amit Shah's visit to Hyderabad, he questioned why the Union Home Minister had not spoken about the drought situation in Telangana. He also asked why Union Ministers and MPs from the State had failed to bring the issue to his attention. Sravan demanded a CBI inquiry into the alleged "RR tax" issue in Telangana and questioned the Centre's response if the Chief Minister was allegedly sending money to Delhi. He further demanded that Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Amit Shah explain why they were allegedly protecting Revanth Reddy. Claiming that the BJP leadership viewed Revanth Reddy as another Himanta Biswa Sarma, he alleged that Modi and Amit Shah had a special affinity towards the Telangana Chief Minister. Questioning the Chief Minister's failure to stage a protest in Delhi, Sravan asked why he was not demanding Rs.20,000 crore in Central assistance for Telangana. He also recalled that a case relating to the vote-for-cash controversy was still pending against Revanth Reddy.

The BRS MLC also criticised the Director General of Police (DGP), alleging that an illegitimate constitutional framework was being implemented in the State. BRS leaders Palvai Sravanthi, K. Kishore Goud and others were present at the media conference.

BJP slams cong over "Vote Chori", says CM Revanth has "Brain Chori"

Hyderabad, Nov 3 : BJP Telangana president N. Ramchander Rao accused Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy of neglecting farmers and engaging in political drama in Delhi, while dismissing Rahul Gandhi's "vote chori" campaign as hypocrisy.

Addressing a BJP Maha Padayatra meeting in Nirmal on Tuesday, Rao said Revanth Reddy had suffered "brain chori" while Rahul Gandhi had indulged in "name chori" by allegedly appropriating the Gandhi surname. He accused the Congress of spreading false propaganda against the Modi government.

Rao alleged that Revanth Reddy was ignoring farmers facing irrigation and power shortages, while focusing on political campaigns in Delhi. He praised the NDA government for its corruption-free administration and called upon BJP workers to strengthen the party across Telangana. Union Minister of State for Home Affairs Bandi Sanjay Kumar said Rahul Gandhi lacked an understanding of the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) process and asserted that only Indian citizens could decide who becomes Prime Minister, MPs and MLAs. He expressed confidence that the BJP would form the next government in Telangana under Rao's leadership.

Over 44,000 government buildings connected to solar power, saving Rs 700 crore annually: PM Modi

More than 44,000 government buildings across India have been connected to solar energy, generating annual savings of around Rs 700 crore, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Monday, highlighting the country's progress in renewable energy and its commitment to strengthening energy security through clean power.

Addressing the Bharat Renewable Energy Summit in the national capital, the Prime Minister said India has made significant strides in the renewable energy sector over the past 12 years, connecting industries, farms and households with solar power.

"Over the last 12 years, we have worked to connect industries and farms with solar power. More than 44,000 government buildings across India are now connected to solar energy, generating annual savings of around Rs 700 crore," Pm Modi stated.

"Farmers across the country are also benefiting from the PM-KUSUM scheme. Through this initiative, more than 30 lakh farmers have been provided with solar-powered irrigation facilities. Estimates suggest that each farmer can save around Rs 1 lakh annually by using solar pumps," the Prime Minister mentioned.

He said the government aims to bring every government building, school, college, hospital and street-lighting system under solar energy to further expand the country's clean energy infrastructure.

The Prime Minister also highlighted the progress made under the PM Surya Ghar Muft Bijli Yojana, launched in February 2024 with the target of installing rooftop solar panels in one crore households.

"More than 65 lakh households have joined the initiative in the past 24-25 months," he said.

Emphasising India's commitment to global climate goals, PM Modi said the country had achieved its target of meeting 50 per cent of its installed electricity capacity from non-fossil fuel sources in 2025, five years ahead of the schedule set under the Paris Agreement. "Under the Paris Agreement, India also pledged to meet 50 per cent of its installed power capacity from non-fossil fuel sources. We achieved this target in 2025, five years ahead of schedule. Today, more than 50 per cent of India's installed power capacity comes from non-fossil fuel sources," the Prime Minister stated.

China erasing Tibetan identity: ICT

Washington, Nov 3 : China is intensifying human rights abuses in Tibet and using a new law to place its forced assimilation policies on a legal footing, the head of a leading Tibet advocacy group has said. Ryan Fioresi, executive director of the International Campaign for Tibet (ICT), said the situation inside Tibet remained deeply troubling. He urged the United States and other governments to press Beijing to resume negotiations with the Dalai Lama or his representatives.

"The situation inside Tibet is quite grim," Fioresi told IANS in an interview. "The human rights abuses are escalating from the Chinese government." Fioresi pointed to China's Ethnic Unity and Progress Law, which came into force on July 1. He said the measure gave legal cover to policies aimed at weakening Tibet's distinct identity.

"The Chinese government just implemented on July 1st, just a few days ago, the Ethnic Unity and Progress Law, which codifies many of Beijing's forced assimilation policies into Chinese law," he said.

"Many of the stipulations in the Ethnic Unity and Progress Law contravene China's own constitution and its international human rights commitments."

Fioresi said the International Campaign for Tibet had sought to draw global attention to the legislation. The organisation has appealed to governments, the United Nations and interfaith leaders to speak out.

"We called on governments, the United Nations, interfaith leaders to speak out on this law, to shine a light on what China is doing to erase Tibetan identity and to urge Beijing to change these policies," he said.

WFP launches South Sudan's first drought anticipatory action

Juba, Nov 3 : The United Nations World Food Program (WFP), in partnership with the South Sudanese government, has launched the country's first anticipatory action initiative against drought to help vulnerable communities prepare for worsening dry conditions in Eastern Equatoria State.

The intervention, targeting Budi and Kapoeta North counties, is expected to directly benefit more than 65,000 people through early warning communications and cash assistance to protect livelihoods before drought conditions worsen. "Anticipatory action is transforming the way we manage climate-related shocks," Mutinta Chimuka, WFP country director for South Sudan, said in a statement, Xinhua news agency reported.

"Rather than wait for drought to deepen humanitarian needs, we are acting based on forecasts and evidence to support communities before livelihoods are disrupted. By delivering assistance early, we can help families protect what they have, strengthen their resilience, and reduce the human and economic costs of drought," she added. According to the WFP, cash assistance is being provided to over 50,000 people to help households meet essential food and livelihood needs before conditions deteriorate, while strengthening their purchasing power and reducing reliance on negative coping mechanisms.

The agency said more than 65,000 people are also benefiting from early warning communications and public awareness campaigns that guide drought preparedness, livestock management, efficient water use, and livelihood planning to strengthen resilience to climate shocks.

UNGA President sees some progress towards UNSC reform

United Nations, Nov 3 : General Assembly President, Annalena Baerbock, says there is some progress in the process for the reform of the Security Council with several options "put on the table" during current session.

"We took a step forward", she said on Tuesday at her final news conference as president. "We did not only continue the process, but for the first time, different options for the reform were put on the table", she said.

India and several countries, however, do not see this going far enough to get the reform process moving because it still would not amount to a negotiating text that they have been demanding.

Pakistan's ranking in World Justice Project Rule of Law Index warrants reflection

Islamabad, Nov 3: Pakistan's ranking in the World Justice Project (WJP) Rule of Law Index 2025 warrants reflection and not dismissal or indiscriminate blame. Pakistan secured the 130th spot among 143 nations in the WJP Rule of Law Index 2025, a report has detailed.

The index assesses eight components, including constraints on government powers, corruption, open government, fundamental rights, order and security, regulatory enforcement, civil justice and criminal justice. Several of these dimensions are influenced by courts but they do not determine them all. The overall standing of the country must be seen as the picture of its wider rule of law environment and not a verdict on its courts, a report in leading Pakistani daily 'The Express Tribune' mentioned.

Pakistan secured 129th spot in Civil Justice and was ranked 101st in Criminal Justice. According to the WJP Rule of Law Index 2025, Pakistan scored 0.36 on accessibility and affordability of civil justice, 0.28 on unreasonable delay and 0.35 on effective enforcement.

"International indices can reveal shortcomings and encourage reform, but surveys and expert assessments should be considered alongside institutional records and lived experience. Some evidence underlying annual assessments predates recent changes, whose effects may take time to emerge. Pakistan's ranking warrants reflection, neither dismissal nor indiscriminate blame," Shahid Hussain Kamboyo wrote in 'The Express Tribune'.

"Ultimately, justice must be felt in the worker who recovers his wages, the widow who secures her inheritance, and the pensioner who receives relief while it still matters. The true measure of progress is not a better place on a table, but a lasting public confidence that the law will protect people when they need it most," it added. On October 30, a leading human rights organisation severely condemned the 10-year prison sentences handed down to human rights lawyers Imaan Zainab Mazari-Hazir and her husband, Hadi Ali Chattha, in Pakistan, in connection with a security breach case, describing it as a "clear example of the helplessness of the judiciary in Pakistan, the absence of justice, and a system based on military dominance".

The Baloch Yakjehti Committee (BYC) said that sentencing the couple to 10 years in prison each "is an attempt to silence the struggle for the defence of human rights and justice." It stated that Imaan Zainab Mazari-Hazir and Hadi Ali Chattha were not only lawyers but human rights activists who always raised their voices against the atrocities committed against the Baloch, Pashtun, and other oppressed nations, and have consistently played a leading role in the struggle for justice.

In a statement shared on X, the BYC said, "Sentencing Iman Zainab Mazari and Hadi Ali Chatha to ten years in prison each is a clear example of the helplessness of the judiciary in Pakistan, the absence of justice, and a system based on military dominance.

Maha: Congress criticise BJP for 'Save Democracy' rallies

Mumbai, Nov 3 : The Maharashtra Congress president Harshvardhan Sapkal on Tuesday claimed that BJP's aggressive campaign to 'save democracy and the Constitution' is nothing but a case of the pot calling the kettle black.

"The unprecedented 'Vote Bachao, Desh Bachao' mega rally organised by the INDIA alliance at Ramlila Maidan in Delhi has dealt a major blow to the Modi government. Rattled by the rally, the BJP is now organising 'Save Democracy, Save the Constitution' rallies across the country.

"However, the BJP and RSS are the real destroyers of democracy and the Constitution. Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis accusing the Congress of undermining democracy and the Constitution is laughable. The RSS, the BJP's parent organisation, does not accept the Constitution drafted under the leadership of Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar, while BJP leaders have openly spoken about changing it. The BJP has the Constitution on its lips but the Manusmriti in its heart," said Sapkal.

Taking aim at the BJP and CM Fadnavis, Sapkal further said that despite being in power for 13 years, the BJP continues to target Jawaharlal Nehru, Indira Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi instead of highlighting its own achievements.

He added that the governments led by Narendra Modi and Devendra Fadnavis came to power through vote theft in the 2024 elections.

Stalin accuses TVK government of reversing Tamil Nadu's growth, losing South Korean investment

Chennai, Nov 3 : DMK leader M.K. Stalin on Tuesday accused the Tamilaga Vettri Kazhagam (TVK) government of undermining Tamil Nadu's economic progress, citing reports of slowing GST revenue growth and the alleged diversion of a proposed Rs 1,614 crore South Korean investment to neighbouring Andhra Pradesh.

In a statement, Stalin said two reports that emerged in the morning reflected what he described as a deterioration in the State's development trajectory under the present administration, as he alleged that the government's neglect was weakening Tamil Nadu's ability to sustain growth and attract investment.

Referring to the first report, Stalin claimed that Tamil Nadu's GST revenue growth had fallen below the national average. He portrayed this as an indication that the state's economic momentum was being eroded under TVK rule. His second allegation concerned South Korean investments worth Rs 1,614 crore that, he said, had been expected to come to Tamil Nadu. Stalin claimed these investments had instead gone to Andhra Pradesh because of the TVK government's indifference.

The DMK chief also criticised the functioning of Guidance Tamil Nadu, the organisation associated with attracting and facilitating investments in the state. He said an institution that had helped bring investments and recognition to Tamil Nadu was now being affected by the "arrogance" of individuals under the current administration.

Stalin linked these allegations to his broader criticism of the government's priorities, contending that economic administration and investment promotion were suffering while the political leadership concentrated on electoral activity.

In a sarcastic remark, he said the government had demonstrated how a state could move into "reverse gear" across sectors within such a short period.

Targeting Chief Minister C. Joseph Vijay, Stalin alleged that he neither understood nor appeared aware of the significance of these developments. Instead of addressing the issues, the Chief Minister had set out to make appearances in constituencies facing by-elections, he charged.

The criticism placed the alleged investment loss and weaker tax revenue growth at the centre of Stalin's attack on the administration. His statement presented both as signs of a reversal in the state's development, while accusing the leadership of failing to recognise the seriousness of the situation.

Stalin concluded with a warning that Tamil Nadu would face severe difficulties under continued TVK rule. He urged the public to prepare for challenging times, alleging that the government's approach threatened the state's economic future.

Caste rigidity divides society; shared faith, culture weave it into single thread: CM Yogi

New Delhi, Nov 3 : Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on Tuesday said that caste-based divisions weaken society, while shared faith and cultural traditions bring people together, describing Ayodhya's Deepotsav as a prominent example of social unity.

In a post on social media platform X, CM Yogi said that governments before 2017, which based their politics on caste divisions, had overlooked the unifying potential of the state's cultural heritage. "Caste rigidity divides society, while shared faith and culture weave it into a single thread. Shri Ayodhya ji's Deepotsav is a vibrant example of this social unity. Before 2017, governments that made caste divisions the basis of politics completely ignored this cultural force that unites society," he said.

The Chief Minister said the BJP-led government changed this approach by launching Deepotsav in 2017 and transforming the cultural heritage of Ayodhya, also known as Ram Nagari, into a celebration for people from all sections of society.

"Under the guidance of revered saints and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, religious leaders, students, sanitation workers, potters and traders today participate in this event with equal enthusiasm and devotion," he said.

Emphasising the inclusive nature of the celebrations, CM Yogi said participation, rather than caste, defines people's identity during the festival.

"Here, identity is not determined by caste, but by participation. Lamps are lit by different hands, but their light unites the entire society. This is the message of Deepotsav. This is the vision of a harmonious society," he added.

Gujarat: Man held for sexually assaulting minor, extorting valuables worth Rs 46 lakh through photo threats

Valsad (Gujarat), Nov 3 : A 21-year-old man was arrested by Gujarat's Dungri police in Valsad district for allegedly sexually assaulting a minor girl, threatening to circulate photographs of the incident and extorting Rs 2.61 lakh in cash and gold ornaments worth around Rs 43.48 lakh from her, police said on Monday.

The accused, identified as Dhruvil Patel, a resident of Shankartalav Mandir Faliya in Valsad, was arrested on October 29, approximately 10 days after the girl's family lodged a complaint on October 19.

According to the complaint, Patel allegedly lured the girl away from her guardians on August 31 and September 26 and took her to Hotel Aamantran on Tithal Road in Valsad.

"He sexually assaulted her against her wishes and took photographs of the incident.

He subsequently threatened to circulate the photographs and defame her, using them to intimidate her into arranging money and valuables from her home," officials said.

Three arrested in Malakpet stabbing & robbery case; phones, bikes seized

Hyderabad, Nov 3 : Malakpet Police, with the assistance of the Commissioner's Task Force, arrested three persons in connection with an attempted murder and robbery at Gaddiannaram on October 27.

According to police, the prime accused allegedly entered a woman's flat at Pochamma Basti on the pretext of a false reason, stabbed her with a knife and escaped with her OnePlus mobile phone. The injured woman was shifted to Yashoda Hospital, Malakpet, for treatment.

The prime accused was apprehended during vehicle checks at Gaddiannaram X Road on November 2. Two others, allegedly involved in receiving and disposing of stolen property, were also arrested.

Lift Godavari waters to fill SRSP & Nizam Sagar : BRS MLA Vemula

Hyderabad, Nov 3 : Former Minister and Balkonda BRS MLA Vemula Prashanth Reddy on Tuesday strongly condemned the Congress government and Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy for allegedly spreading misinformation that the Medigadda Barrage had collapsed, asserting that the structure remains intact.

A team of BRS representatives from the erstwhile Nizamabad district, led by Prashanth Reddy, undertook a field visit to inspect the plight of farmers facing crop losses due to inadequate irrigation water. The team first visited the Pranahita-Godavari confluence near the Kaleshwaram project, inspected the flow of water at the Godavari bridge between Sironcha and Kaleshwaram, and visited the Kannepalli Pump House. Subsequently, they inspected the Medigadda Barrage.

India's coal production sees 42 pc growth at 22.03 million tonnes in October

New Delhi, Nov 3 : The government on Tuesday said that coal production from captive and commercial mines stood at 22.03 million tonnes (MT) in October, increasing from 15.49 MT in October 2025, which is a 42 per cent annual growth.

Coal dispatches reached 21.11 MT last month, increasing from 15.48 MT in October 2025 (36 per cent growth).

The coal ministry said that the sector registered robust year-on-year growth, with coal production increasing from 105.33 MT to 117.23 MT at 11.30 per cent and dispatch increasing from 111.95 MT to 124.86 MT at 11.53 per cent compared to the period April to October of the previous year, reflecting sustained momentum in mining operations.

In a further boost to the sector, the Lohari coal mine in Jharkhand obtained Mine Opening Permission in October 2026. The mine had been awaiting operationalisation for several years, and its approval reflects the impact of Ministry's Ease of Doing Business reforms.

With this, the number of operational captive and commercial coal mines has risen to 87, said the ministry.

The rising production from these mines is expected to reduce dependence on imported coal, strengthen supply-chain resilience, conserve valuable foreign exchange, and advance the Government's vision of Atmanirbhar Bharat by enhancing self-sufficiency in a critical raw material for industrial development. "These encouraging results underscore improved operational efficiency, enhanced mining productivity, and more effective utilisation of mining capacities across the captive and commercial coal mining sector." said the ministry.

Manipur: Not part of Kuki, says Thadou community

Imphal/Guwahati, Nov 3 : Amidst the ethnic hostilities between Meitei and Kuki-Zo, the tribal Thadou community in Manipur asserted that it is a distinct ethnic tribe with its own separate language, culture, traditions and great history.

The Thadou community also called for peace and non-violent resolutions to the ethnic conflict in Manipur. Thadous have always been known and recorded as Thadou, without any prefix or suffix to it, and it has been the single largest tribe in Manipur consistently since the first census of India in 1881 till the latest census in 2011.

According to the 2011 census, Thadou has a population of 2,15,913. The Any Kuki Tribes (AKT) had a population of 28,342 in Manipur in the latest census (2011), the first time Kuki was ever recorded in a census, they said. Momani emphasised that the Jordanian army will not hesitate to enforce engagement rules against any threat to Jordan's security, warning that amid escalating regional unrest, Jordan will not serve as a battleground for any party and will not permit military aircraft, missiles, or drones to pass through its airspace, Xinhua news agency reported.

Kemi Badenoch wins UK's Tory leadership race

London, Nov 3 : Kemi Badenoch was elected the new Conservative Party leader of the United Kingdom (UK), becoming the first black woman to lead a major political party in the country.

Badenoch, former secretary of state for business and trade, won 57 per cent of the votes, beating Robert Jenrick, former minister of state for immigration, the Conservative backbench 1922 Committee Chairman Bob Blackman said on Tuesday.

The Tory leadership race was triggered by former Prime Minister Rishi Sunak's announcement of his intention to resign on July 5 after the Conservatives lost to the Labour Party in the country's general election, Xinhua news agency reported. On July 29, the 1922 Committee announced six contenders had met the requirements to enter the leadership race: Robert Jenrick, Kemi Badenoch, James Cleverly, Priti Patel, Mel Stride, and Tom Tugendhat.

The list was whittled down to the final two through several rounds of voting among Tory MPs (Members of Parliament) before the Conservative Party members were asked to cast their votes between October 15 and 31 to decide the ultimate winner. Badenoch said in her victory speech that the Tories need not only clear "Conservative pledges that appeal to the British people," but also "a clear plan to change this country by changing the way that government works".

Ambassador Kwatra says India-US ties remain strong

Washington, Nov 3 : India's Ambassador to the United States Vinay Mohan Kwatra pushed back against concerns over strains in the US-India relationship, asserting that ties between the two countries continue to enjoy strong bipartisan support and are expanding across trade, technology, defence and critical minerals.

Addressing the Capitol Hill Summit 2026 organised by the US-India Friendship Council, Kwatra said many perceptions about tensions in the relationship were "not informed by the actual facts on the ground".

"We are natural partners not because of geography or compulsions of geography, but because of our shared values," Kwatra said, recalling Prime Minister Narendra Modi's address to the US Congress.

The ambassador said every US administration over the past two decades had built upon the achievements of its predecessor in strengthening ties with India.

"If you look at the thread of the relationship over the previous decades and through the successive administrations, you will find that each administration has tried, sought and successfully built on the achievements of the previous administration," he said.

Kwatra pointed to India's economic transformation since 2014 as a major driver of expanding engagement with Washington.

"One of the drivers, I must point out, is a set of transformational journeys that are currently taking place in India," he said. Highlighting economic ties, Kwatra noted that India and the US had set a target of increasing bilateral trade from about $220 billion annually to $500 billion by 2030.

He described defence and security cooperation as one of the fastest-growing pillars of the partnership, citing operational coordination and renewed long-term defence frameworks between the two countries.

Washington, Nov 3 : The Trump administration imposed fresh sanctions on 11 Cuban officials and three government organisations, intensifying pressure on Havana over what Secretary of State Marco Rubio described as repression, security threats and support for foreign intelligence and military operations. The sanctions were announced under Executive Order 14404 signed by President Donald Trump on May 1, 2026, targeting those "responsible for repression in Cuba and for threats to United States national security and foreign policy." Vancouver, Nov 3 : A 60-metre buffer zone has been created around one of Vancouver's largest gurdwaras following an order passed by the British Columbia Supreme Court as Sikh extremist groups plan to create ruckus during a consular camp, later on Tuesday.

Local media reported that the authorities at the Ross Street gurdwara had sought a preemptive injunction ahead of two consular camps planned for November 2 and 16, amid growing tensions between Canada and India that New Delhi has attributed to "vindictive campaign" unleashed by the government led by Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau after the killing of Khalistani terrorist Hardeep Singh Nijjar, last year. The Khalsa Diwan Society, which runs the gurdwara, said in court documents that it expects "intense protests" at the both consular camps which, the documents submitted in the court mentioned, are organised every year and help "seniors of Indian descent to complete administrative tasks with the Government of India, primarily in relation to their pensions, without the need for attending in person at the Indian consulate." Designated terrorist Gurpatwant Singh Pannun founded pro-Khalistan group Sikhs For Justice (SFJ) had issued a statement Friday saying it would "counter" the camps in Vancouver and Surrey.

He also reviewed the proposed Rajmah Mission in the Barak Valley. The Minister stressed the need to move beyond conventional paddy cultivation and promote alternative crops such as makhana, agarwood, edible oil palm, coconut and dragon fruit, besides other fruits and horticultural produce.

He directed senior officials to ensure timely implementation of departmental schemes, strengthen accountability and improve grassroots-level engagement so that government initiatives deliver tangible benefits to farmers.

Hazarika also highlighted the state government's vision of transforming Assam into a leading horticulture-based state by exploiting the agricultural potential of individual districts. In a separate meeting with representatives of another unit, the Minister explored opportunities to expand potato cultivation and strengthen the company's partnership with farmers across Assam. This unit, which operates a plant in Nalbari, currently has around 1,200 potato farmers associated with its operations in the state and has a significant requirement for potatoes.

Hazarika emphasised the need to expand the existing engagement to more farmers through stronger market linkages, ensuring assured opportunities for potato growers and improving their income. The discussions focused on strengthening the farmer-industry partnership and exploring ways to increase potato production to meet the company's requirements.

The Minister said strengthening the agriculture sector, encouraging crop diversification and promoting industry-farmer partnerships would remain key priorities of the state government.

Cyber fraud probes: Rajasthan Police explains online grievance system for frozen accounts

Jaipur, Nov 3 : In a major relief for citizens whose bank accounts are frozen during investigations into cyber fraud cases, the GRM (Grievance Redressal Mechanism) Module developed by the Indian Cyber Crime Coordination Centre (I4C) has emerged as an effective and transparent solution. The system has been designed to assist account holders whose bank accounts have been frozen, placed under lien or put on hold due to suspicious transactions identified during cyber crime investigations. V.K. Singh, Additional Director General of Police (Cyber Crime), said continuous efforts were being made to prevent cyber crimes in the state and provide prompt relief to victims. He said the GRM Module, introduced as part of this initiative, was proving highly beneficial for the general public. Earlier, affected account holders were often required to make repeated visits to police stations, banks and administrative offices. However, the entire grievance redressal process is now being conducted online in a transparent and accountable manner.

The GRM Module is an online grievance redressal system operating under the National Cyber Crime Reporting Portal (NCRP) and the Citizen Financial Cyber Fraud Reporting and Management System (CFCFRMS).

Its primary objective is to provide relief to genuine account holders whose accounts have been frozen or placed under lien during cyber crime investigations by ensuring an impartial review of their cases. Under the GRM process, the account holder is first required to visit the concerned bank branch and submit an application seeking the unfreezing of the account or removal of the lien. The bank then verifies the applicant's KYC (Know Your Customer).

Gujarat Congress seeks SC-monitored probe into Ram Temple Trust 'irregularities'

Vadodara, Nov 3 : The Congress on Tuesday called for a Supreme Court-monitored independent judicial investigation into alleged irregularities related to the Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust, demanding the registration of FIRs against those it claimed were involved and questioning the Trust's governance and financial transparency.

Addressing a press conference, party national spokesperson Surendra Rajput alleged that donations and offerings made by devotees for the construction of the Ram Temple had been misused.

He said the issue was not merely financial but concerned the faith and trust of lakhs of devotees. "Politics was done in the name of Ram Mandir, and now there is alleged plunder in the name of offerings.

The donations collected in the name of Lord Shri Ram have now also allegedly become victims of the political plunder of the Bharatiya Janata Party and the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh," he said.

He added that devotees across the country deserved answers. "Today, the same crores of devotees of Lord Ram are compelled to ask under whose protection the donations and offerings collected in the name of Lord Shri Ram were allegedly looted," he said.

Rajput said Lord Shri Ram represented the faith, culture and moral consciousness of crores of Indians and noted that "poor people, farmers, labourers, women and devotees from across the country had contributed their savings, jewellery and hard-earned money towards the construction of the temple". Referring to what he described as developments within the Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust, Rajput said that the resignations of former General Secretary Champat Rai and trustee Anil Mishra had been accepted. He also referred to public statements by the Trust's Treasurer, Govind Dev Giri; media reports concerning specially invited member Gopal Rao (Gopal Nagarkote); and the appointment of former Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh Uttar Pradesh in-charge Krishnamohan as the Trust's new General Secretary.

Dismantling UNRWA deprives Palestinian children of education: Agency chief

Gaza, Nov 3 : Dismantling the UN agency for Palestine refugees without a viable alternative will deprive Palestinian children of the opportunity to receive education, the agency said.

The United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) was providing education to more than 300,000 children in Gaza until, half of the school-age children who are now losing their second year of school, Philippe Lazzarini, Commissioner-General of UNRWA, said on Tuesday on social media platform X.

Lazzarini added that there are about 50,000 children in the West Bank studying in UNRWA schools, noting that UNRWA is the only UN agency that provides education directly through its schools, Xinhua news agency reported.

"Our schools are the only education system in the region that includes a human rights program and follows the standards and values of the United Nations. Without education, children slide into despair, poverty, and extremism," he said.

Lazzarini noted that instead of focusing on banning UNRWA or finding alternatives to it, the focus should be on reaching an agreement that ends the regional conflict.

The Israeli Parliament passed on October 28 two legislations to prohibit UNRWA from operating in the country and ban Israeli authorities from any contact with the agency.

Former US Ambassador flags challenges in US-India ties amid trade, visa concerns

Washington, Nov 3 : Former US Ambassador to India Richard Verma warned that recent trade disputes, visa restrictions and rising anti-Indian sentiment in the United States had created new strains in the US-India relationship, even as he described the partnership as one of the most consequential in the world.

Speaking at the Capitol Hill Summit 2026 organised by the US-India Friendship Council, Verma said ties between Washington and New Delhi had witnessed "exceptional growth" over the past 25 years, but cautioned that the relationship was now entering a more uncertain phase.

"I'd say the system is flashing a bit yellow," Verma said.

Verma, who also served as Deputy Secretary of State, said no other bilateral relationship had expanded as rapidly as US-India ties since 2000.

"It would be hard for me to think of another bilateral relationship between the year 2000 and the year 2025 that has grown as much and as deep as the US and India," he said.

Tracing the evolution of the partnership, Verma recalled that relations had hit a low point during the 1970s and again after India's 1998 nuclear tests, before undergoing a dramatic transformation beginning with President Bill Clinton's India visit in 2000.

'Department of European Problems': Russian Foreign Ministry renames key wing

Moscow, Nov 3 : In a tongue-in-cheek gesture amid its growing tensions with its western neighbours, the Russian Foreign Ministry has renamed its Department of European Cooperation as the Department of European Problems (DEP) - on its website.

The changes to the structural diagram on the ministry's webpage were made earlier this week but only reported by Russian media on the weekend, as per RT.

However, notwithstanding the renaming, the department, which deals with matters of "international European organisations" such as the OSCE (Organisation for Security and Co-operation in Europe), the Council of Europe, the EU, and NATO, will do the same work as before.

However, the department renaming has only been done on the Foreign Ministry's Russian version and the department's name remains the same on the English, French, and German versions.

Russia's relations with most European countries and organisations have deteriorated since 2014 since the change of regime in Ukraine and its takeover of Crimea, and gotten only worse since the conflict began with Ukraine in February 2022, in which the EU has been supporting Kiev with weapons and funds.

India can't avoid global responsibility: US Congressman

Washington, Nov 3 : US Congressman Ro Khanna said India must increasingly act like a global power and take on greater international responsibilities as it rises economically and strategically on the world stage.

Speaking at the Capitol Hill Summit 2026 organised by the US-India Friendship Council, Khanna said India's growing influence carried obligations beyond regional politics and economic growth.

"India has to decide who it wants to be as it enters this place of world leadership," Khanna said during a panel discussion on defence, technology and energy cooperation. "You can't say you want to be a world leader, but then shrink away from responsibility."

Khanna specifically pointed to the Ukraine conflict, arguing that India could play a constructive diplomatic role because of its longstanding ties with Russia.

"I've been very vocal in India as well as here that India can play a very constructive role in helping bring the war in Ukraine to an end," he said. "It has lines of communications with Russia." Noting that India historically sought to maintain a non-aligned position in global affairs, Khanna suggested the geopolitical realities of the 21st century required New Delhi to take clearer positions on international crises. "India has its own aspirations," Khanna said. "Fastest growing economy in the world. It has to decide who it wants to be." Despite recent tensions over tariffs and trade policies under President Donald Trump's administration, Khanna said the broader strategic logic of the US-India relationship remained unchanged. "Nothing fundamentally has changed about our long-term strategic interest," he said.

Khanna argued that both Democrats and Republicans in Congress continued to strongly support closer engagement with India, particularly on defence, technology and Indo-Pacific security cooperation.

At the same time, he criticised what he described as anti-Indian voices within sections of the Trump administration.

Natural ally: Congressman Tim Moore backs stronger US-India partnership

Washington, Nov 3 : US Congressman Tim Moore described India as a "natural ally" of the United States and called for deeper cooperation in technology, energy and advanced manufacturing between the two democracies. Speaking at the Capitol Hill Summit 2026 organised by the US-India Friendship Council, Moore said North Carolina's growing Indian American community and expanding business ties with India had reinforced his belief in the long-term importance of the relationship. "India and the United States are joined together as two democracies," Moore said. "India is absolutely one of the prime countries to do that with." Moore, a Republican representing North Carolina's 14th Congressional District, said his state had seen significant economic gains from Indian investment and talent, particularly through universities and technology industries in the Research Triangle region.

"Indian American companies have invested over $1 billion in North Carolina," he said, adding that the partnership had created thousands of jobs in the state.

The congressman said sectors such as artificial intelligence, data centres, energy infrastructure and advanced manufacturing offered major opportunities for future US-India cooperation.

"The growth in STEM has been a natural home to so many," Moore said. He particularly highlighted nuclear energy and small modular reactor technology as promising areas for collaboration between Washington and New Delhi. "My belief is that nuclear power actually solves this problem a lot for both countries," Moore said. "India is a natural partner on that."Moore said both India and the United States faced rising energy demands because of expanding economies and growing artificial intelligence infrastructure. "We can't, as Americans, afford to fall behind in any kind of technological advancement," he said. "Right now AI is that thing." The congressman also praised the role of Indian Americans in North Carolina, saying the community had contributed significantly to the state's economic and educational growth.

US Senator Daines calls India one of America's most important partners

Washington, Nov 3 : US Republican Senator Steve Daines described India as one of America's most important geopolitical partners and stressed that trust between the two democracies would be critical for the future of the relationship.

Addressing the Capitol Hill Summit 2026 organised by the US-India Friendship Council, Daines said the United States and India shared strategic interests that extended far beyond trade and diplomacy. "We didn't need this kind of friction, in my opinion, with one of the geopolitically most important relations we have, and that's between the United States and India," Daines said. The senator from Montana, who serves on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, spoke at length about the importance of trust in international partnerships, citing former US Secretary of State George Shultz. "George Shultz once said, when trust was in the room, good things happened. When trust was not in the room, good things did not happen," Daines said.

'Keep pressure on Australia': Atherton asks England to leave pre-Ashes scars in white-ball series

Former England cricketer Michael Atherton has asked England to "keep the pressure on Australia" during the upcoming white-ball series Down Under, as he feels that the Aussies can "implode" before the Ashes next year, considering the problems they are dealing with and the hectic schedule ahead.

Australia recently lost to South Africa 2-1 in the Test series, which saw them lose their World No. 1 ranking and also their top spot in the World Test Championship points table.

Manu Bhaker to contest for ISSF Athletes Committee for 2026–2030 term

New Delhi, Nov 3 : India's double Olympic medallist Manu Bhaker is set to contest the elections for the International Shooting Sport Federation (ISSF) Athletes Committee for the 2026–2030 term, having been nominated as a candidate in the Pistol category.

The election will take place during the competition days of the ISSF World Championship 300m Rifle in Cairo, from October 17–19 and the ISSF World Championship Rifle/Pistol/Shotgun in Doha, from November 3–13 .

All athletes who are at least 18 years old and actively participating as athletes at either of these World Championships will be eligible to vote. Each eligible athlete can vote for a maximum of two candidates in each discipline, with a total of six candidates across the three categories.

Manu, one of 10 candidates vying for two elected positions in the discipline, who has experienced the demands and challenges of competing at the highest level, believes that athletes must have a stronger voice in decisions that shape the future of their sport. Speaking about her candidature, Manu said, "Having competed at the highest level, I have experienced first-hand both the opportunities and challenges that come with being an international athlete. I believe that athletes should not just be participants in the sport but also active voices in shaping its future.

What about 18-year-old chasing dreams; supporting athletes 'isn't bleeding the system': Sindhu

New Delhi, Nov 3 : Double Olympic medallist PV Sindhu hits back at criticism she faced over the issue of funding cut that left Indian shuttlers to bear the expenses of their recent European tour, arguing that funding athletes should be viewed as an investment in the country's sporting future rather than an unnecessary burden on the system.

Sindhu's comments come amid a debate over the Sports Authority of India's (SAI) alleged decision not to finance the Indian contingent's four-tournament European campaign, which included competitions in Finland, Denmark, France and Germany. The issue came into focus after Sindhu and Lakshya Sen won the women's and men's singles titles, respectively, at the Hylo Open in Saarbrucken, Germany, on Sunday. Taking to social media, Sindhu highlighted the financial imbalance between professional badminton and other established sporting circuits, pointing out that players face substantial expenses regardless of their results, while tournament earnings can vary drastically depending on how far they progress.

"I don't think your tweet fully captures the reality of professional badminton.

A first-round exit at Wimbledon earns 80,000 pounds. Winning the China Open, one of badminton's richest tournaments, earns USD 140,000. Lose in the first round? Just USD 2,000. Yet our expenses are largely similar. Travel, coaches, physios, trainers and support teams. I've had long conversations with Rohan Bopanna about this very disparity. "I agree that established athletes should strive to be financially independent.

Unfortunate that Grace Harris has gone at base price : Abhinav Mukund

New Delhi, Nov 3 : UP Warriorz's decision to secure Australian all-rounder Grace Harris at her base price in the Women's Premier League (WPL) 2027 auction has drawn attention, with former India cricketer Abhinav Mukund questioning whether the franchise's latest acquisition reflects her actual value. Mukund believes Harris, despite coming off a strong season, was unfortunate to lose her place in a championship-winning setup following the return of fellow Australian Ellyse Perry, but expects the hard-hitting batter to play an important role for UP Warriorz in the upcoming edition. Harris, who has previously represented UP Warriorz, was among the notable overseas additions made by the franchise at the auction. Her availability at the base price has raised questions about how teams are valuing experienced overseas players.
